

1. POLICY STATEMENT

- 1.1 This policy is intended to:
- (a) establish the manner in which nominations and elections to the Board of the Association will be held; and
  - (b) ensure that there is broad representation of the membership on the Board, whenever possible.

1. PURPOSE

- 2.1 This policy will:
- (a) provide the authority to establish a Nominating Committee;
  - (b) outline the nomination process; and
  - (c) describe how the election process will be administered.

2. SCOPE

- 3.1 This policy will apply to those voting directors who are elected from among the membership.

3. INTERPRETATION

- 4.1 The following provisions will apply to the interpretation of this policy.
- (a) Schedule “A” contains definitions of terms used in this policy.
  - (b) A reference to any statute, regulation or bylaw refers to that enactment as it may be amended or replaced from time to time.
  - (c) Words in the singular include the plural and gender specific terms include both genders and include corporations.
  - (d) The headings in this policy are for convenience only and must not be construed as defining or in any way limiting the scope or intent of this policy.
  - (e) If any part of this policy is held to be invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid part is severed and the remainder continues to be valid.
  - (f) Schedule “B” contains any forms, checklists, templates, or documents to be used in conjunction with the policy.

4. PRINCIPLES

Nominating Committee

- 5.1 Prior to any annual general meeting (AGM), the Board may establish a Nominating Committee which consists of:
- (a) the President;
  - (b) the Executive Director; and
- at least one of the current directors.
- 5.2 The Nominating Committee will undertake necessary efforts to recruit members to stand as candidates for a position on the Board.
- 5.3 The Nominating Committee should consider the following criteria when recruiting suitable candidates:
- (a) geographic diversity;
  - (b) a balance between small, medium, and large sized organizations;
  - (c) a balance between new directors and experienced directors;
  - (d) the skill sets which benefit the functioning of the Board and any gaps in those skill sets of the existing Board members; and
  - (e) any other criterion noted by the Board.
- 5.4 Except for the Executive Director, section 7.1 does not apply to the members of the Nominating Committee, who may nominate as many names as there are positions available on the Board:

Nomination Process

- 5.5 The Association will call for nominations from the membership 30 or more days before the AGM.
- 5.6 The call for nominations from the membership will include the following information:
- (a) the number of director positions on the Board that are currently or will become available for election at the annual general meeting;
  - (b) the term for each such position to be filled;
  - (c) an explanation of the requirements of the position;
  - (d) an explanation of the nomination process;
  - (e) details as to what a person must do to be nominated;
  - (f) a copy of the acceptance of nomination form in Schedule B; and
  - (g) the statement that nominations should be received, if possible, 7 days before the date of the AGM.
- 5.7 A candidate must be nominated by:
- (a) 1 member in good standing as the nominator; and

Nominations and Elections Policy

- (b) 2 members in good standing as the members in support of the nomination.
- 5.8 A member in good standing may only:
  - (a) nominate up to a maximum of 2 candidates; and
  - (b) act as a member in support of the nomination up to a maximum of 2 candidates.
- 5.9 A candidate may submit a summary of not more than 500 words about his or her experience and qualifications for the position of director.
- 5.10 The Association will provide to the members electronically copies of the summaries received from any candidates before the AGM, provide a printed copy at the AGM and/or provide the opportunity for a verbal presentation at the AGM.
- 5.11 Notwithstanding section 5.5, for in person elections only, a person may be nominated as a candidate at any time before the AGM or during the call for nominations at the AGM
- 5.12 A person may withdraw his or her nomination as candidate at any point prior to the President declaring an election.
- 5.13 Once voting has begun, a person may not withdraw his or her name from the election.

Elections

- 5.14 (1) The Association will hold elections by the following means if an election is necessary:
  - a) in person (secret ballot),
  - b) A mail-in ballot sent to all members in good standing; or
  - c) An election conducted using electronic means
- (2) At a meeting of the Board in advance of the Society giving notice of the AGM, the Board may pass a resolution to conduct the election by mail-in ballot or by electronic means in accordance with any requirements of the Society Act and subject to whatever rules the Board sees fit, provided that:
  - (a) the election by either means can be done in advance of or at the AGM; and
  - (b) the results can be communicated to the Members at the AGM.
- 5.15 A member must be in good standing to vote in an election at the AGM.

- 5.16 In accordance with the order of business set out in the agenda for the AGM, the President will:
- (a) announce the persons who are candidates based on the acceptance forms received prior to the AGM;
  - (b) inform the membership as to the qualifications a person must have to be nominated as a candidate;
  - (c) call for nominations from the floor if an in-person (secret ballot) election to determine if there are any additional persons who wish to be nominated as candidates;
  - (d) confirm that those persons who have been nominated from the floor consent to the nomination if an in-person (secret ballot) election;
  - (e) announce whether an election will be held based upon the number of candidates;
  - (f) permit the candidates to address the membership for up to two minutes each before calling for the election;
  - (g) ask for at least 2 members to act as scrutineers for the election; and
  - (h) call for the election.
- 5.17 A member who serves as a scrutineer:
- (a) must not be a candidate for director; and
  - (b) may still vote in the election.
- 5.18 If there is an equal number of candidates as there are for vacant positions on the Board after the call for nominations from the floor, then the President will:
- (a) not call an election at the AGM; and
  - (b) declare those candidates as acclaimed to be directors on the Board.
- 5.19 If there are more candidates than there are vacant positions on the Board after the call for nominations from the floor, then the President will:
- (a) call an election by secret ballot, by mail in ballot or by electronic means; and
  - (b) declare the top number of candidates to receive the most votes as elected to be directors on the Board, as are required to fill the vacancies.
- 5.20 If there are fewer candidates than there are vacant positions on the Board, then the following will occur:
- (a) the President will declare those candidates as acclaimed to be directors on the Board at the annual general meeting; and

Nominations and Elections Policy

- (b) after the AGM, the Board will select members as directors on the Board up to the number of director positions still vacant on the Board.

Conduct of the Candidates During the Election

- 5.21 A candidate must display respectful behaviour towards the other candidates at all times.
- 5.22 A candidate must not use the Association's logo or resources as part of his or her campaign.
- 5.23 A candidate must direct all questions about the election to the Executive Director.

Administration of the Election

- 5.24 The Executive Director:
  - (a) will administer any election that is necessary;
  - (b) may do whatever is necessary to administer the election;
  - (c) will prepare the ballots and the ballot boxes for an in-person election;
  - (d) may appoint others to assist with the administration of the election;
  - (e) will count the ballots received whether by mail in, electronic or in-person voting; and
  - (f) will provide an election results report to the President.
- 5.25 Only the following people will be permitted to participate or observe the counting of the ballots:
  - (a) the Executive Director;
  - (b) the persons appointed by the Executive Director to assist with the administration of the election; and
  - (c) the members who serve as scrutineers.
- 5.26 Those persons listed in section 5.25 will not discuss the counting of the ballots with anyone before, during or after the election.
- 5.27 Upon the close of the polls, the Executive Director, in the presence of any scrutineers, will do the following in an in-person election:
  - (a) take the ballot box to a private area;

- (b) open the ballot box; and
  - (c) count the votes with the assistance of any person appointed to assist with administration of the election in the presence of the scrutineers.
- 5.28 Upon the close of the polls for a mail-in or electronic ballot, the Executive Director, in the presence of scrutineers will do the following:
- (a) confirm the mail in or electronic votes have all been received only from members;
  - (b) confirm that only one vote per member has been cast;
  - (b) tally the votes cast with the assistance of any person appointed to assist with the administration of the election in the presence of the scrutineers.
- 5.28 The following types of ballots will be counted as illegal ballots for a given position:
- (a) those which are marked for too many candidates;
  - (b) those which include the name of a fictional person;
  - (c) those which include the name of member who was not nominated for the position;
  - (d) those which include the names of unidentifiable or ineligible candidates;
  - (e) those which are identifiable as cast by a person who is not entitled to vote; or
  - (f) those which have more than one completed ballot folded together, all of which will be counted as one illegal ballot.
- 5.29 The following types of ballots will not be counted as illegal ballots, if the meaning is clear and the choice is valid:
- (a) those which have a spelling or grammatical mistake;
  - (b) those which have the marks indicating the preference are outside of the area to be marked; and
  - (c) those which have 1 completed ballot and at least one blank ballot folded together.
- 5.30 Those ballots which are blank which will not be counted in the total of legal ballots cast but will be recorded as part of the election results reports.
- 5.31 If there is any ambiguity as to whether a ballot is illegal, the Executive Director has the final authority to determine the legality of the ballot.
- 5.32 In the case of an election for 1 vacant position, the candidate with the highest number of votes for the position will be elected to that position.
- 5.33 In the case of an election for positions which have more than 1 vacant position to be filled by the election, the following applies:

Nominations and Elections Policy

- (a) the candidate with the highest number of votes will be elected to the first vacant position; and
  - (b) the candidate with the second highest number of votes will be elected to the next vacant position, and so on until all the positions are filled.
- 5.34 A candidate who is elected to a position which has multiple vacancies in any given election does not have to receive the majority of the votes cast to be considered as having the highest number of votes.
- 5.35 If it is discovered after the vote has taken place but before the formal announcement of the results that a candidate:
- (a) is ineligible for office; and
  - (b) has received the highest number of votes
- the candidate with the next highest number of votes will be declared elected.
- 5.36 The Executive Director will prepare an election results report which contains the following information for each position:
- (a) the number of votes cast;
  - (b) the names of the candidates in order of number of votes from highest to lowest;
  - (c) the number of blank votes in total;
  - (d) the number of illegal votes in total; and
  - (e) the number of illegal votes broken out in the categories as to the reasons why the votes are illegal.
- 5.37 Once the Executive Director has read the election results report to the membership, the Executive Director will declare those candidates for director with the highest number of votes up to the number of the vacant positions as elected as directors.
- 5.38 Once the Executive Director has declared the winning candidates as directors, there will be no appeal or recount available.

After the Election

- 5.39 Following the declaration of results, the President will call for a motion to destroy the ballots

Nominations and Elections Policy

5.40 If the Association has not adopted a motion to destroy the ballots, the Executive Director will destroy all ballots on the date which is 14 days after the date of the annual general meeting.

5.41 The Executive Director will secure the ballots in such a way as to protect the secrecy of the ballots, prior to the destruction of the ballots.
